SITUATION AND DESCRIPTION

The majestic Château du Martheray is erected on the heights of Begnins and overlooks Lake Geneva and the Alps, facing Mont-Blanc.

Built in the 15th century, it was enlarged during the 19th century, and completely restored according to the rules of the art in 2015. A meticulous work that has made it possible to offer this castle of more than 2000 m² of living space modern comfort while preserving the original classicism of its building. The architectural ensemble is splendid and the main building and its annexes provide a unique volume.

A beautiful driveway lined with centuries-old trees leads to an interior courtyard and provides access to the chateau as well as an outbuilding converted into staff accommodation. The main building offers majestic reception rooms, as well as 7 bedrooms all en suite.

The ground floor gives access to a remarkable air-conditioned wine cellar offering the possibility of welcoming guests for unforgettable tastings. Next comes a sublime winter garden, a living room, an office, a tack room, a spacious summer kitchen and guest toilets.

The first floor includes three magnificent adjoining lounges enjoying a panoramic view of the lake, a majestic dining room, a La Cornue kitchen with authentic charm, an office, as well as guest toilets.

The tower serves a guest bedroom and an en-suite bathroom.

The second floor, dedicated to the sleeping area, offers a sublime master suite with lake view, dressing room and bathroom, as well as two additional bedrooms with dressing room and en-suite bathroom, one of which has a living room. A fitness area with dressing room and bathroom, a staff bedroom, a kitchenette and a laundry room complete this floor.

The attic offers a large space which can be used as a reception room, as well as a bedroom with kitchenette and shower room.

A magnificent park of almost 1 hectare culminates facing Mont-Blanc and gives the property great privacy and a wonderful view of the lake and the mountains.

It is undeniably one of the most majestic domains on the coast.
