SITUATION AND DESCRIPTION

On the south side of Cavallo island, facing the Lavezzi islands is built a spectacular building. A true architectural feat imagined by architect Savin Couelle in the 90s, this unusual waterfront property perfectly embraces its surroundings.

A veritable sculpture set on the water's edge it offers multiple living spaces in an organic atmosphere where interiors and exteriors complement and merge.

Featuring 5 bedrooms and spectacular reception areas, the property has its own small sandy beach and a berth in the island's private harbor for a 30m boat.

Established on a peninsula of almost one hectare, this is a robinson's dream on one of the most beautiful islands in the World.
